

2ND INTERNATIONAL INDIGENOUS VOICES IN SOCIAL WORK CONFERENCE

Indigenous Knowledges: Resurgence, Implementation and Collaboration

July 8-11, 2013

The Fort Garry Hotel
222 Broadway
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Join Indigenous practitioners, activists, community workers and educators to discuss social work issues central to the health and well-being of Indigenous peoples.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS

The planning team invites proposals for workshops, papers, roundtable discussions, and poster sessions that address the conference themes. We encourage creative and innovative proposals that will bring people together for active and interactive sharing and collaboration. We hope to promote the development of shared visions and frameworks within which we can work together for transformative and reciprocal healing and health, practice and knowledge development.

CONFERENCE MISSION

To promote Indigenous voices in social work by enhancing awareness and the applications of Indigenous practices aimed at healing social problems facing Indigenous families, children, and communities.

THEMES:

RESURGENCE

This theme is focused on addressing the supporting the resurgence of Indigenous knowledges and how Indigenous knowledges inform social work

IMPLEMENTATION

This theme focuses on Indigenous knowledges have been implemented in social policies, social organizations, programs, practice, education, research, and social action.

COLLABORATION

This theme is focused on collaboration between peoples, organizations, and Indigenous peoples and social work generally.

SUBMISSION

Please submit online by December 31, 2012 to info@bruceandboivin.com.

Electronic submission is preferred and encouraged.

For more information, please visit,

iivsw2013.com